Rules

- Contestants must be pre-registered 24 hours in advance of entering a coyote and may not enter a coyote killed by another person not entered during any time; only coyotes killed by the registered person may be entered
- Hunt begins 12:00am on January 1, 2010 (coyotes killed prior to start date are not eligible to be entered)
- Hunt is statewide within Pennsylvania. Coyotes killed out of state are not eligible for entry
- Coyotes must be entered/checked within 48 hours of kill
- Coyotes may be trapped. Hunting over dogs, bait, calling or driving is allowed. No road kills, penned or farm raised animals whatsoever. All firearms and archery equipment is acceptable as long it falls within the laws set forth by the Pennsylvania Game Commission
- Coyotes must be brought to Kinsey's Outdoors to be entered and weighed. Kinsey's Outdoors associates will perform the weigh-in. The associate will have the full authority to deny the entry of any coyote for any valid reason.
- Coyotes must be "fresh" and not frozen when entered. The coyote will not be entered if evidence of it being frozen is found by the examining Kinsey's Outdoors associate.
- Coyotes will be checked for evidence of tampering of the carcass in an effort to increase body weight (water, metals, etc., into the body cavity)
- Participants have until 5:00pm, March 14, 2010 to enter a coyote – contest ends March 14
- Coyotes must be taken lawfully following the Pennsylvania Game Laws
- All contestants must be properly licensed within the manner of which they harvest the coyote (Regular Hunting License and/or Furtaker)
- Contestant must provide drivers license and hunting license(s) when entering any coyote
- Any coyote found in violation of a rule will not be entered. The participant will also be disqualified from the contest and no return of any expenses or fees will be awarded
- Contestant is responsible for the removal of the coyote carcass
